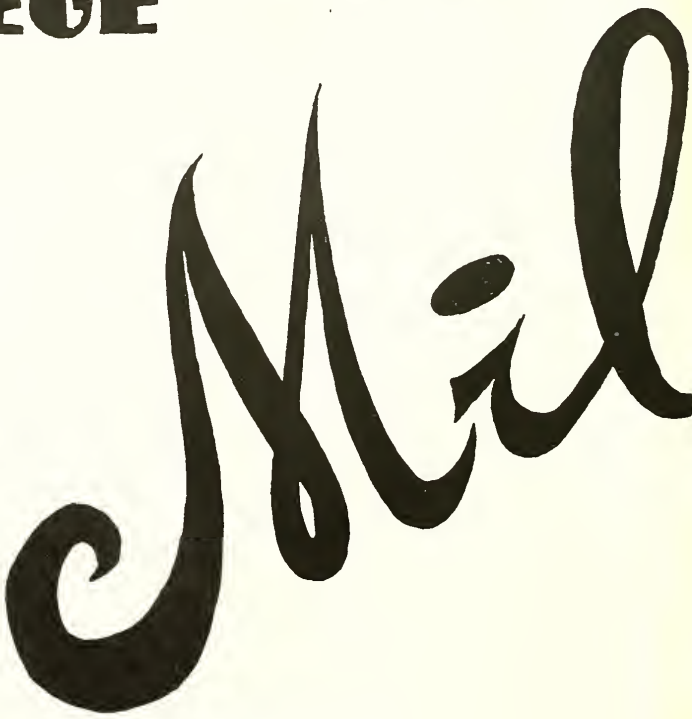
PRESENTING
EASTERN KENTUCKY STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE



estone
'48

Foreword

This is the proper place for the Editor to express his most deep felt and sincere gratitude to all the staff members who so unselfishly and cooperatively brought forth this yearbook. The reader will never appreciate their untiring efforts, for he has no conception of their diligent endeavors. However, your satisfaction with their book will doubtlessly compensate their unsung toil.

DEDICATION

Although he still looks at his watch and exclaims, "We just haven't enough time," we, the Senior Class of 1948, take time to dedicate this Milestone to Virgil Burns.

For the last twenty years he has dedicated himself and his abilities so that he has become an integral part of the personality of Eastern. We shall look back humble in the shadow of his knowledge, grateful in the reflected light of his teaching, and proud that we can say, "He is our friend."

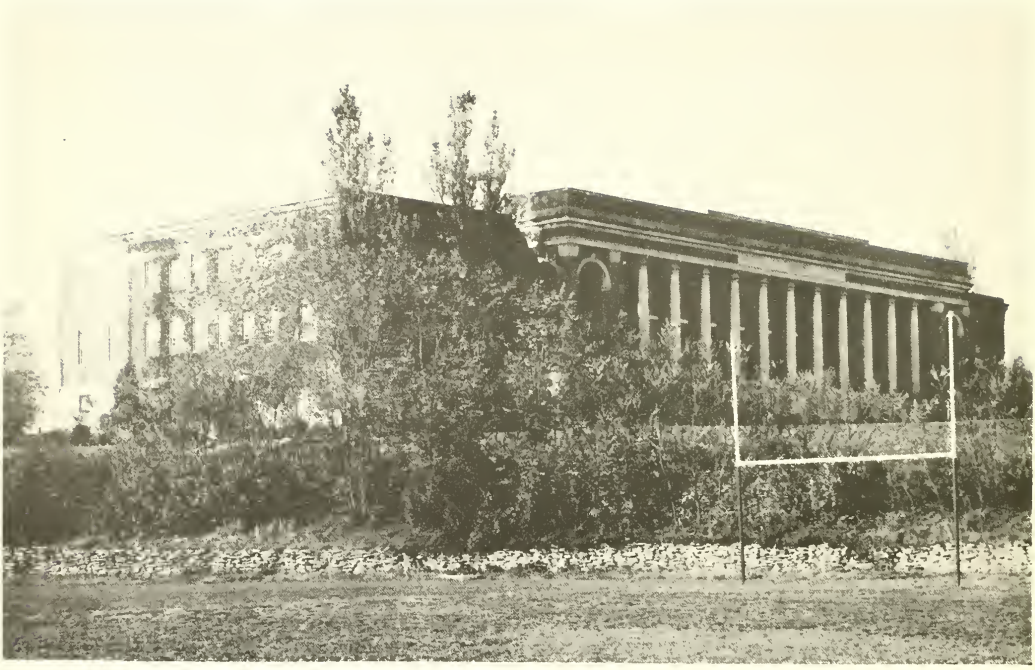
"The Hanging of the Greens

"The Messiah Chorus"

The performance this year was the 16th occasion of the presentation of the Messiah at Eastern with chorus, soloists, and orchestra. The chorus includes members of the student body, members of the faculty, and interested people from the community. Mr. Van Peursem is the director.

Who's Who

First Row: John Holland, Marilyn Trieschman, Elizabeth Pennington, Lula Thurman, Edna Truesdell, Conrad Ott.
Second Row: Glenna Frisby, Peggy McGuire, Allene Grubb, Ida Teater.
Third Row: Paul Bunton, James Hutson, Neal Boyd, Karl Schilling.



Athletics

Director of Athletics

C. T. HUGHES

Since coming to Eastern's campus nineteen years ago, Charles "Turkey" Hughes has been the man behind the men that have coached some of the best athletic teams in the South. During his long stay here, "Turkey" has been the main "Cog" in always producing the winning team.

Besides being Director of Athletics, "Turkey" is also the baseball coach.

His pleasing personality and winning smile have won him a host of friends throughout the country.

Tom Samuels after taking over the head coach duties at the start of the 1947 season established a very commendable season record. Samuels is admired and respected by the students and his colleagues for his friendly personality and his untiring service in building up our Mighty Maroons.

Glenn Presnell as backfield coach in his first year at Eastern assisted head coach Tom Samuels in shaping one of the most aggressive teams in the K.I.A.C. conference. Presnell quickly and efficiently organized his backfield into one of the most smooth working combinations ever to tally for the Maroon and White.

Fred Darling, line coach, is a former Maroon, all K.I.A.C. and Little All American tackle. Fred proved his ability in moulding charging linemen and defensive stalwarts. Fred's kenness in scouting opponents proved invaluable.

Cliff Tinnell served as special assistant to head coach Samuels and line coach Darling. Tinnell is also a former Maroon, having played four years as guard in the same line with Darling. Cliff's ability in developing young guards proved a great asset to the team.

Coach Paul McBrayer

Since coming to Eastern two years ago Coach Paul McBrayer has done more to put Eastern "on the map" than any other person in the history of the school.

McBrayer was an All American guard some years back while playing the guard position with the University of Kentucky.

In his first years at Eastern, Coach McBrayer established one of the best records in the nation. Again this year the Eastern Maroons were one of the top fifty teams in the nation.

Eastern is proud in having one of the nation's best coaches.

Ed Lander

Introducing Ed Lander, another former University of Kentucky basketeer, and the able assistant of Coach Paul McBrayer.

Eastern and Coach McBrayer are very fortunate in having such an able assistant.

In his first year at Eastern, as an assistant to Coach McBrayer, Ed, beyond a doubt, has proven his ability as a basketball coach.
